The Unitarian Universalist Church of Delaware County presents

Dismantling the New Jim Crow...

...the Racism of Mass Incarceration an interactive educational workshop

When: May 9, 2015, 10 AM to 2PM  No fee—Lunch included

Register: http://www.uucdc.org/anti-mass-incarceration-workshop-registration

Please register by May 4, 2015

Questions, please call 610-566-4853, ask for Ministerial Intern Dan Miyake

Where: Unitarian Universalist Church of Delaware County
145 Rose Tree Road, Media, PA 19063

Keith Collins is the pastor and founder of Church of the Overcomer in Trainer Pennsylvania. His ministry involves at-risk youth, individuals and families in crisis, and those involved in the criminal justice system.

Tonie Willis is founder and director of Ardella’s House, a non-profit that provides opportunities for incarcerated and formerly incarcerated women to successfully transition back into the community.

Tyrone Werts is a consultant at the Philadelphia Public Defenders Association and Public Relations Consultant to the Inside-Out Prison Exchange Program at Temple University. His story as a returning citizen inspires us all.

Rhone Fraser is an independent writer and journalist born of Jamaican immigrants in Brooklyn, New York. He graduated as a teacher and writer from Yale University in 2001 and earned his Ph.D. in African American Studies from Temple in August 2012.

Events

- Morning—Four specialists present information about mass incarceration and its relation to racism, families, and society.
- Lunch - Contributions welcomed!
- Afternoon—Panel discussion, audience questions, and volunteer opportunities.